

“I love listening to my patients and providing recommendations that improve their health. Each day brings opportunities to change someone’s life, and I am thankful I can give back to seniors with what I do.”

About Jamie Carson, ARNP

Jamie Carson is a family nurse practitioner who has built a rewarding career caring for others. She started off as an RN, gaining many years of experience with cardiovascular, ER, medical-surgical, home health, triage, and telemetry care. As a nurse practitioner, Jamie Carson has enjoyed having more ways to make a difference. “I love listening to my patients and providing recommendations that improve their health,” she says. “Each day brings opportunities to change someone’s life, and I am thankful I can give back to seniors with what I do.”

In her time off, Jamie Carson savors time with her family. She also likes to go to the beach, read, travel, exercise, and be active with her church.
