“I love sharing the healing arts of alternative medicine and integrative care with them. Seeing acupuncture, health coaching, food support and other modalities enhance their health and quality of life is very rewarding.”

About Reynarichie Bragg, DACM

Originally from Manila, Philippines, Dr. Reynarichie Bragg is a boardcertified doctor of oriental medicine and acupuncture physician who’s dedicated to bringing compassionate care and hope to seniors. “I love sharing the healing arts of alternative medicine and integrative care with them,” Dr. Bragg says. “Seeing acupuncture, health coaching, food support and other modalities enhance their health and quality of life is very rewarding.” It also makes her day to chat with seniors about life and learn from their experiences.

Away from the clinic, Dr. Bragg enjoys lacrosse with her sons and husband and going to the beach. She even volunteers, giving lectures on living well and preventive medicine.
