

“I’m dedicated to treating my patients with honesty, integrity, love, and compassion—the kind of quality care I’d like to receive when I’m a senior.”

About Roger Cisneros, MD

Dr. Roger Cisneros’ passion for being a physician started when he was a teenager. It grew even stronger with the passing of his father, and led him to become board certified in family medicine. “I’m dedicated to treating my patients with honesty, integrity, love, and compassion—the kind of quality care I’d like to receive when I’m a senior,” Dr. Cisneros says. Providing constant motivation and reassurance is important to him as well. “My favorite part of it all is building relationships and getting to know every patient’s life story.”

When he’s not working, Dr. Cisneros loves to spend quality time with family and friends. He also likes cooking, fishing, music, sports, movies, meditation, and the idea of visiting Israel or Dubai.
