

“I enjoy interacting with my patients and I am appreciative of the fact that no two people are alike.”

About Natacha Seidu, MSN, FNP

Natacha Seidu is passionate about holistic care. “My care is not only geared towards treating the physical condition but also the emotional and mental factors that can negatively impact one’s health,” she says. She likes educating and empowering patients. “I enjoy interacting with my patients and I am appreciative of the fact that no two people are alike,” she says. She values transparency and honesty. “My love and appreciation for seniors stems from the close relationship I had with my grandmother,” she says.

In her free time, Natacha Seidu enjoys watching movies with her family. A self-proclaimed fitness enthusiast, she hopes to one day compete in a fitness competition. She also regularly volunteers at Shepherd’s Hope Health Center.
