About Yanet Miranda, ARNP

Yanet Miranda always knew she wanted to work in healthcare. “I love the feeling of helping someone to prevent or overcome a disease and return back to normal life,” she says. She strives to be compassionate and actively listens to her patients’ concerns. She says she likes “promoting health through simple acts of education and care.” She loves working with the senior population and strives to treat them like family. “I like to treat my patients with love, respect, loyalty, and responsibility,” she says. She is passionate about preventative care, explaining, “Disease prevention must become a top national healthcare priority.”

In her free time, Yanet Miranda enjoys traveling with her family and reading. She also enjoys salsa dancing.
