

“Not only is it crucial for our society, caring for our elders is extremely gratifying and fulfilling too.”

About Michael Stuhler, APRN, BSN

Michael Stuhler is passionate about health and making a positive difference in people’s lives. His favorite part of being a nurse practitioner is “developing lasting relationships with patients.” He explains, “I believe this is a key ingredient to providing quality care.” He aims to treat every patient like family and loves caring for the senior population. He explains, “Not only is it crucial for our society, caring for our elders is extremely gratifying and fulfilling too.” If he could change anything about healthcare today, he would make it more affordable.

In his free time, Michael Stuhler can be found hiking, reading, or spending time with his family. To relieve stress, he enjoys working in his yard.
