“I listen intently and guide my patients into making the healthcare decisions that best fit their needs. I praise small efforts as well as larger ones.”

About Diane May Thompson, FNP-BC

Diane Thompson knew at a young age that she wanted to pursue a career in healthcare. “I wanted to make a difference so that anyone, regardless of income, could be helped,” she says. Her patients are her favorite part of being a family nurse practitioner. She loves seeing their health improve. “I listen intently and guide my patients into making the healthcare decisions that best fit their needs. I praise small efforts as well as larger ones,” she explains. She strives to empower her patients. To keep up with the latest medical advancements, she reads medical journals.

In her free time, Diane Thompson loves reading and attending church. She also knows how to sew and shares that she is the youngest of six children.
