

“I strive to meet patients where they are and set small goals to achieve larger health goals.”

About Gloria Boateng, MSN, FNP-C

For over eleven years, Gloria Boateng has provided compassionate care to diverse populations. “I enjoy building relationships with my patients and their families; providing a safe place to ask any health-related questions,” she says. She cares for patients beyond their health concerns and likes learning about their goals. She explains, “I strive to meet patients where they are and set small goals to achieve larger health goals.” She strives to always be “open and honest” with patients. “I want you to live your healthiest possible life,” she says. To keep up with the latest medical advancements, she reads professional journals and attends conferences.

In her free time, Gloria Boateng enjoys traveling, reading, cooking, and dancing.
