

“I love educating my patients and earning their trust, thus becoming a team.”

About Teresa Irizarry-Quiles, MD

At an early age, Dr. Teresa Irizarry-Quiles formed an interest in medicine. “I always told myself how fascinating it should be to help improve people’s health, and now as a doctor, I see it. I never regret being what I am, and I thank God for giving me the opportunity,” she explains. She is passionate about her role as a physician. “I love educating my patients and earning their trust, thus becoming a team,” she says. She always listens to patients and strives to treat everyone “with respect and love.” She especially enjoys working with the senior population. “I respect and admire them a lot,” she says.

In her free time, Dr. Irizarry-Quiles enjoys watching movies and spending quality time with her family and friends.
