About James Brown, MD

Dr. James Brown, a family physician with over twenty years of experience, has always had a “natural aptitude for science.” His favorite part of working in healthcare is helping patients heal. Dr. Brown employs “trust, compassion, empathy, and the application of experience and medical knowledge” to build strong relationships with patients. He likes working with other physicians to “help patients achieve better health.” Dr. Brown enjoys working with the senior population and has been serving them for years.

When he is not caring for patients, Dr. Brown loves spending time with his family and watching sports. He is also a member of a musical ensemble and says he has an interesting sense of humor.
