About Maria Capecchi Rodriguez, APRN

For thirty years, Maria Capecchi Rodriguez has enjoyed caring for others. “I believe I was born to help and treat people medically,” she says. To build trust with patients, she always listens to their needs. Sharing and talking with patients is one of her favorite parts of her profession. She enjoys educating patients about treatments and healthy habits to help “improve the quality of life.” She encourages patients to “enjoy the moment.” She adds, “We must always see the positive in order to ‘live.’”

In her free time, Maria Capecchi Rodriguez enjoys spending time with her children. She also likes exercising and playing sports. She has a special passion for karate and has been practicing for twenty years.
