

“Knowing that I can make a difference in someone's life one person at a time is my favorite part of my profession.”

About Nicole Edwards, MSN, FNP

Nicole Edwards cared for her grandmother during her battle with cancer, which solidified her interest in pursuing a career in healthcare. “Knowing that I can make a difference in someone’s life one person at a time” is her favorite part of her profession. She enjoys learning about her patients and strives to always “do the right thing for the patients because it instills trust.” In her free time, she enjoys reading, journaling, and traveling to the beach with her family. She also loves learning fun facts.

Nicole Edwards is a proud veteran of the United States Army, where she served as a captain for ten years. While in the army, she was a part of the 75th Combat Support Hospital in Millington, Tennessee.
