

“My favorite part of my profession is waking up each morning feeling like my work has purpose and meaning.”

About Mishelle Mowry, APRN, FNP

Mishelle Mowry is grateful for the opportunity to make a difference in people’s lives. She explains, “As a family nurse practitioner, my favorite part of my profession is waking up each morning feeling like my work has purpose and meaning.” She adds, “I try to build relationships with patients by making them feel heard—not just about their health but all aspects of their life. We are more than just our physical health—our emotional, social and spiritual needs are important to our overall well-being.” She loves “caring for older adults” and learning from their life experiences.

Mishelle Mowry enjoys spending time with family and friends in her down time. She also likes reading, watching documentaries, and playing with her two cats.
