“Helping them and seeing them improve right in front of you is the most rewarding aspect of my job.”

About Jose Romeu Torres, MD

Dr. Jose Romeu Torres has always wanted to be a physician and says that his patients are his favorite part of his profession. “Helping them and seeing them improve right in front of you is the most rewarding aspect of my job,” he says. Communication and availability are key in his practice. “I try to impact their lives by giving them the best healthcare I can offer and also be listening to them,” he explains. He adds, “The senior population is often forgotten or misunderstood, but they offer a well of knowledge and wisdom.”

When not caring for patients, Dr. Romeu Torres can be found spending time with his daughter. He also enjoys hiking, kayaking, and participating in his younger brother’s video game streams.
