

“Forming long term-bonds with patients and their families.”

About Misael Tollen, MD

Dr. Misael Tollen explains that caring for his grandfather instilled in him a desire to pursue a career in healthcare. “Forming long term-bonds with patients and their families” is his favorite part of his profession. He considers himself to be “very approachable and flexible.” Dr. Tollen enjoys supporting the senior population and vows to always prioritize the dignity of his patients.” He takes a holistic approach in his practice and strives to listen to each patient’s individualized needs when developing a care plan. “Transparency is key,” he says.

When not caring for patients, Dr. Tollen can be found enjoying quality time with his family. He is also fascinated with construction and loves learning how things work.
