

“My favorite part of being a physician is the opportunity to build long-term relationships with patients and help guide them through their health journey.”

About Shazada Yunus, MD

Dr. Shazada Yunus realized his passion for healthcare during high school. “My favorite part of being a physician is the opportunity to build long-term relationships with patients and help guide them through their health journey,” he says. He emphasizes “preventative care and education” in his practice and strives to “empower patients to make informed decisions that enhance their long-term health and well-being.” He adds, “As people live longer, there is a growing need for expertise in managing chronic conditions, promoting health aging, and enhancing the quality of life for seniors.”

In his free time, Dr. Yunus loves exploring new places and watching sci-fi movies. He also likes staying fit through weightlifting and calisthenics.
