

“I am a huge advocate of treating patients the way I would want my family to be treated.”

About Amelia St. Ange, MD

Dr. Amelia St. Ange fell in love with the healthcare profession while accompanying her grandmother on her community health center visits. “I quickly developed an interest to be in healthcare to provide equitable access to seniors,” she explains. She believes in active listening and shared decision-making. “I am a huge advocate of treating patients the way I would want my family to be treated; therefore, getting to know my patients is ideal in helping them navigate access to equitable healthcare,” she explains. She is board certified in Internal medicine and regularly engages with scientific journal articles to stay up to date with the latest advancements in medicine.

In her down time, Dr. St. Ange enjoys playing tennis, hiking, crafting, and spending time with her family.
