“When my patients have good days, so do I.”

About Jessica Kaczar, APRN, FNP-C

After working as a Surgical Technologist for three years, Jessica Kaczar pursued a nursing degree to become more involved in patient care. “I knew I wanted to provide continuity of care for my patients in every step of their health plan and know who they are as a whole,” she says. She loves building relationships with patients and advocating for their health and wellness. She considers herself a “positive, bubbly” person and enjoys making her patients’ days “brighter.” She adds, “When my patients have good days, so do I.”

When Jessica Kaczar is not caring for patients or enjoying the Florida sunshine, she can be found supporting the Buffalo Bills, caring for her pets, or traveling with her significant other. She also collects mugs.
