

“Elderly patients often bring wisdom, stories, and perspectives from their lives that can be humbling and inspiring.”

About Kafila Jaipuri, MSN, FNP

For ten years, Kafila Jaipuri has prioritized open communication and treating patients with empathy. “It’s important to make them feel valued and heard, demonstrating kindness and emotional support, educating and empowering them to make informed decisions regarding their own health, and advocating for them,” she says. She finds it incredibly rewarding to treat patients holistically, especially seniors. “Elderly patients often bring wisdom, stories, and perspectives from their lives that can be humbling and inspiring,” she says.

Kafila Jaipuri loves spending her free time socializing and traveling with friends. She is dedicated to daily exercise and especially likes running. She also enjoys listening to audiobooks.
