

“Being a patient is a very vulnerable experience and so by being as welcoming and genuine as possible, it helps to lay the foundation for a trusting and rewarding relationship.”

About Aaron Pascual, MD

Dr. Aaron Pascual always knew he wanted to work in healthcare. “My love for science and to help others had no better fusion than to become a physician,” he says. He takes pride in being purposeful and sincere. “Being a patient is a very vulnerable experience and so by being as welcoming and genuine as possible, it helps to lay the foundation for a trusting and rewarding relationship,” Dr. Pascual explains. He says he felt especially compelled to work with the senior population after witnessing the lingering effects of COVID-19. Dr. Pascual considers this profession his calling.

When not with patients, he loves spending time with his growing family. A fun fact about Dr. Pascual is that he was an avid scuba diver during college.
