

“I chose to work with seniors because I value their resilience and enjoy providing preventative care for a better quality of life.”

About Juan Sosa, MD

Dr. Juan Sosa’s desire to “help people live healthier lives” led him to the medical field. “I chose to work with seniors because I value their resilience and enjoy providing preventative care for a better quality of life,” he adds. He always takes the time to listen to his patients and understand their goals, so he can provide personalized care. Open communication and prevention are a key in his practice. He explains that he likes involving patients in the decisions surrounding their care. He strives to provide care that is “both effective and compassionate” to help patients “feel supported and empowered.”

Outside of work, Dr. Sosa loves spending time with his family and enjoying the outdoors. He also enjoys traveling.
