“It is now my turn to support and help them, like they did with me when I was growing up.”

About Alexandros Samohin, MD

Dr. Alexandros “Alex” Samohin loves educating patients regarding their health and assisting them in making sustainable lifestyle changes, such as “keeping active and eating healthier.” He finds it incredibly important to listen to patients and “talk to them as people and not just as patients.” He points to his “aging parents and their growing medical needs” as a catalyst for his decision to pursue a career in medicine. “It is now my turn to support and help them, like they did with me when I was growing up,” he says. He adds that he “will always try to provide the best possible care” and “promote a healthy body and mind.”

In his free time, Dr. Samohin loves making memories with his family. He also enjoys jogging and gardening.
