“I ensure that they are heard and participate in their care.”

About Emmanuel Terhemba Kajoh, DNP, MSN, MPH, APRN, FNP

“The strong desire to alleviate suffering, improve health and support people during vulnerable times” led Emmanuel Terhemba Kajoh to a career in healthcare. He is committed to “helping the most vulnerable,” adding that “caring for seniors provides the rewarding opportunity to significantly improve the lives patients and their families.” He strives to build genuine connections with patients through empathy and effective communication. “I ensure that they are heard and participate in their care,” he says. He is also strong in his faith in God and will often use his words to provide comfort.

In his free time, Emmanuel loves watching sports, especially soccer and lawn tennis. He also enjoys cooking, exercising, and watching movies.
