“By providing comprehensive, coordinated care, I can help seniors maintain their independence and actively participate in the activities they love.”

About Belkis Perez, DNP, APRN, RN

Mrs. Belkis Perez is committed to providing comprehensive, holistic care that treats “the whole person, rather than just addressing symptoms.” She prioritizes preventive care, explaining, “I want to proactively identify and manage conditions before they lead to hospitalizations or emergency situations.” Mrs. Perez wants patients to know that she genuinely cares about them and that they can always count on her. “By providing comprehensive, coordinated care, I can help seniors maintain their independence and actively participate in the activities they love,” she explains.

Mrs. Perez loves spending her free time with family and friends. She also enjoys drinking tea by the pool, reading, and traveling.
