About Seth R. Rubin, MD, MSCP

Dr. Seth R. Rubin views patients as “the VIPS of the medical community” and believes they should be treated as such. “As a physician, I am a teacher and consultant who helps patients gain the understanding they need to make decisions they believe are right for them,” he explains. He likes building “collaborative relationships” with patients and always considers their priorities when developing treatment plans. “Our community’s seniors are accomplished, wise, strong, and worthy of our support and respect. I am energized when I share medical information that empowers them to achieve their goals,” he says.

Dr. Rubin loves spending his off time with family. He also enjoys staying active through biking and yard work.
