“We are a team with the same outcome: providing the best individualized care for the most positive result humanly possible.”

About Amy S. Zahniser, APRN-CNP

Amy S. Zahniser has always enjoyed working with the senior population. She explains, “I sought a away to continue caring for others after helping my grandparents navigate their health in aging.” She strives to “empower” patients and educate them on their health. She also enjoys getting to know her patients and problem-solving with them, explaining, “We are a team with the same outcome: providing the best individualized care for the most positive result humanly possible.” She adds, “I am here to serve God, my patients, and my co-workers.”

In her spare time, Amy can be found serving in her church or spending quality time with family. They especially enjoying visiting the eastern Upper Peninsula of Michigan.
