A CHENMED COMPANY

“I value helping older adults maintain their independence, optimize their quality of life, and feel supported in every stage of their health journey.”

About Edward J. Duqum, D.O.

Dr. Edward J. Duqum is committed to “delivering proactive, patient-centered care that focuses on prevention, early intervention, and clear education.” He was first drawn to healthcare due to a combination of his “intellectual curiosity and a desire to make a meaningful impact in people’s lives.” He elaborates, “I value helping older adults maintain their independence, optimize their quality of life, and feel supported in every stage of their health journey.” He loves connecting with patients and always takes the time to “understand their goals, concerns, and values, and involve them in shared decision-making.”

Dr. Duqum loves connecting with family and friends, enjoying the outdoors, and exploring new music in his free time.
