“I promise that I will do my best to take great care of them.”

About Dr. Angela Bennett, MD

Dr. Angela Bennett was drawn to medicine by a deeply personal experience — watching a family member struggle with addiction sparked her passion for caring for underserved communities. A family doctor by training, Dr. Bennett brings warmth, laughter, and genuine human connection to every patient encounter. "I try to make them feel loved and appreciated," she says.

Dr. Bennett believes care goes beyond the clinical. She is known for greeting patients with a hug — "not only for them, but for me," she says — and for filling the room with laughter. "I care a lot about people," she says. "I promise that I will do my best to take great care of them."

When not with patients, Dr. Bennett loves cooking, gardening, traveling, and visiting museums. She is a devoted baseball fan and has a special appreciation for the stories behind people's jewelry — always eager to hear the history and meaning behind a treasured piece.
