“I try to make myself always available to my patients.”

About Stuart Kauffman, DO

Dr. Stuart Kauffman has wanted to be a physician since he was a young child. Growing up around his family's business located across the street from a university hospital, he had the unique opportunity to meet and learn from the doctors and nurses who frequented the shop. "I was so amazed and intrigued with the medical field through the experiences these amazing doctors and nurses conveyed to me," he says. That early inspiration has fueled more than 30 years of dedicated practice.

Dr. Kauffman takes time to truly get to know each of his patients, building the trust and confidence that he believes is at the heart of great care. He is known for being personable, non-judgmental, and always available. "I try to make myself always available to my patients," he says. "Gaining their trust and confidence ultimately improves patient outcomes."

When not with patients, Dr. Kauffman is an avid golfer and loves attending pro sporting events. Above all, he cherishes time spent with his wife and daughter.
